

ACM at UCLA COVID-19 Policy Spring 2022

This policy is informed by the Update on COVID-19 Protocols for Spring Quarter, COVID Protocol Updates for Spring Quarter, UCLA COVID Protocols, COVID protocol Engineering Leadership Workshop with Dean Bruce Dunn, UCLA COVID-19 Community Screening Protocol, University of California SARS-CoV-2 Vaccination Policy, and UCLA COVID-19 Pivot Plan Decision Matrix.

UCLA COVID policies always supersede policies in this document.

Please note that “required” means a policy will be actively enforced; “encouraged” means a policy is highly recommended but not actively enforced.

Policy measures marked with * are relaxations to COVID protocols that are anticipated to go into effect on April 30 ( Update on COVID-19 Protocols for Spring Quarter). These relaxations are contingent on UCLA COVID protocols and prevailing public health conditions. ACM’s PVP will review these measures as soon as further updates/guidance is received from UCLA and will update this policy accordingly.

ACM does not anticipate organizing any mega-events (1000 or more attendees) in Spring Quarter. For guidance on mega-events and any questions on ACM’s COVID policy, please contact ACM’s COVID compliance POC at acm@ucla.edu.

ACM/UPE/Explore Tech shared Clubhouse (Boelter 2763)

- When the clubhouse is in use:
  - The double doors should be open to encourage airflow when possible,
  - All individuals are encouraged to medical-grade masks but are no longer required for individuals up to date with their COVID-19 vaccines and boosters.

COVID preparedness boxes

- Hand sanitizer, spare masks, and cleaning supplies were stored in “COVID preparedness box” as required by UCLA’s return to in-person learning since Fall Qaurter.
- While “COVID preparedness boxes” are still available, ACM will no longer replenish them. You are welcome to continue using the boxes while supplies last.
- Please return boxes to the clubhouse ASAP after use.
